Brief Description: -

Principal Dr. K Srinivasarao presided over to said that Constitution Day also known as 'Samvidhan Divas', is celebrated in our country on 26th November every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India.

Rajyanga pracharaka Vedika convenor I. Ramurthi said that In 2015, under the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment, the government designated November 26 as Constitution Day to promote constitutional values and coincide with Ambedkar's 125th birth anniversary. Before this, the day was celebrated as Law Day.

Advocate K.Vijay said that Dr B.R Ambedkar, widely regarded as the “chief architect” or “father” of the Indian Constitution, once famously said, “The Constitution is not a mere lawyer’s document; it is a vehicle of life, and its spirit is always the spirit of the age.”

Best teacher award receiver V. Ramachari said that Constitution Day is celebrated annually in India and commemorates the adoption of the Indian Constitution by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949. It came into effect on January 26, 1950, which is marked as Republic Day.
