The Home of Kavikokila Gurram Jashuva, which is in a village “Chatragaddapadu”, is just two kilometers from the college. Its been a practice in the college to celebrate his birth anniversary in his own village. Continuing this tradition , Department of Telugu visited the village along with students. The statue of Sri.Gurram Jashuva was garlanded. The public was reminded of the contribution of one of the greatest poets in telugu literature. Students recited some of his poems and vowed to follow his spirit.
