Observation of World Red cross day

Activity : Observation of World Red Cross day

Date : 17-08-2017

World Red Cross Day is an important day that is celebrated every year. The day that World Red Cross Day is celebrated is 8th May. It is dedicated to protecting the lives of people from natural disasters and epidemic diseases.

On World Red Cross Day, people feel inspired to take up various projects to make a difference in the world. People take up projects on an individual as well as a community basis. They make efforts to promoting humanitarian activities in their surroundings. The local government contributes towards the World Red Cross Day by providing care during health disasters.

Our college conducted Blood Donation camp on the eve of World Red Cross Day. About 50 people participated in the program out of which 29 are eligible and donated the blood.
