As part of the festive celebrations of “Sankranthi Sambaralu – 2026”, SGK Government Degree College, Vinukonda organized a Grand Rangoli Competition for girl students from various Regional Government Junior Colleges. The programme was organized on 07-01-2026 at the SGK Government Degree College Ground. The event was conducted jointly by the Women Empowerment Cell (WEC) and the Cultural Club of the college.

The competition aimed to encourage creativity among young students, promote traditional art forms, and celebrate the cultural heritage associated with the festival of Sankranthi. It also served as a platform for girl students to showcase their artistic skills and to strengthen the bond between educational institutions in the region.

Objectives of the Programme

- To celebrate the traditional spirit of Sankranthi through creative art forms.
- To provide a platform for young girls to showcase their artistic talents.
- To promote cultural awareness, teamwork, and festive enthusiasm among students.
- To encourage inter-institutional participation and strengthen community engagement.
- To recognize and reward creativity through sponsorship and support from local organizations.

The programme was inaugurated by the College Principal, Dr. K. Srinivasa Rao garu, who addressed the gathering and emphasized the importance of cultural and artistic activities in holistic education. He appreciated the enthusiastic participation of students and congratulated the organizing team for promoting traditional art and cultural heritage among the youth.

The competition received an overwhelming response with 62 teams participating in the event, including 5 teams from SGK Government Degree College and 57 teams from other Regional Government Junior Colleges. Each team consisted of two girl students who created vibrant and colourful Rangoli designs. The designs beautifully reflected traditional Sankranthi themes, nature motifs, and festive symbols, adding a lively and joyful atmosphere to the college campus.

Throughout the programme, both teaching and non-teaching staff members actively supported the event as supervisors and coordinators to ensure smooth organization and fair evaluation. The entire campus was filled with color, creativity, and festive enthusiasm as participants displayed their artistic skills on the ground.

Judgment and Prize Distribution

The Rangoli designs were carefully evaluated by the judges Sri Raju Master garu, Smt. A. Sarva Mangala Devi, and Smt. D. Sailaja. After thorough assessment of creativity, design, color combination, and overall presentation, the winners were announced during the closing ceremony.

Cash prizes were awarded to the winners as follows:

- First Prize – ₹10,000, sponsored by Dr. S. Sai Prem, Sri Sai Hospital.
- Second Prize – ₹7,000, sponsored by Dr. P. Mounika, Sri Balaji Nursing Home.
- Third Prize – ₹5,000, sponsored by Ch. Subbareddy garu, Retired Head Master.

In addition, Consolation Prizes were generously sponsored by Dr. P. Krishna Naik, Karuna Clinic, Mr. SK. Husssein Saheb, Brahmanapalli, and Sri G. Janardhan Reddy, Alumni Member, Brahmanapalli.

The prizes were distributed during the closing ceremony. Dr. G. Swarnalatha garu delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the sponsors, judges, participants, and organizing team. The judges and sponsors were felicitated by the Principal, Dr. K. Srinivasa Rao garu, in appreciation of their support to the programme.

The hosting college also arranged food and refreshments for all the participants and guests, making the event memorable and enjoyable for everyone.
