

Latest General Seminar Topics

www.examfeed.com

Upagupta

Poet :-

- “Wishwakavi Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941) was a poet, dramastist, a short story writer, an educationist and novelist .
- He the first indian who won the nobel prize for his book “ginthajali” in 1913 .
- In the poem “UPAGUPTA” Tagore talks about an incident in an ascetic upaguta’s life .

CONTENT OF THE POEM

Upagupta was a disiple budha . He lay asleep in the dust by the city wall of Mathura . He hated comfort,luxury home from the royal court.she touched upagupta with her feet . It wasn't dilibrate attempt . The girl was attract by upagupta's austereely handsome face . She requested upagupta to come to her house . He refused the dancer's invitation . And told here “ I will visit your when the time ripe” .

A YEAR LATER

Girl was suffering from deadly diseases . She should be looked after by someone . Upagupta had come to serve her . He said that “ it right time for him to visit here because the duty of an ascetic was to render service to humanity”.

“ I will visit you when the time ripe” .

When the most opportune or fovorable time to do something has arrived.....

“It was the right time for him to visit her because the duty of an ascetic was to render service to humanity” .

This is good opportunity for him to visit her the asceticism is a lifestyle characterized by serve self-dicipline . He had wordly pleasure . So he was service to dancing girl .

Prepared by M.Hosanna...